

ILLUSTRATION 1 IS THE FAMOUS STONE MILITARY MACEHEAD RELIEF FROM KING SCORPION'S MACEHEAD DATING TO PREDYNASTIC UPPER EGYPT/KEMIT CIRCA 3,000 BC

ILLUSTRATION 1 above is the famous stone military macehead relief of King Scorpion of Predynastic Upper Egypt/Kemit circa 3,000 BC of recent. He was made the hero of a recent box-office successful Hollywood movie.

The Macehead clearly shows King Scorpion standing with a pick adze in his hand in a Sustainable Agro-Forest (SAF) Garden while a worker holds a basket shovel before him. In front of King Scorpion are irrigation trenches surrounding workers planting a root bound tree also using a pick adze. Behind the King are seen workers tending beehives and Deep Beds with sunflower plants ready to harvest.

With military defeat hostages in totem effigy behind him the military importance of a sound state of horticulture in Ancient Egypt/Kemit saw the Pharaoh directly participating.